

MHP Terms of use

By using 'myHealthPass' (hereinafter also referred to as "app"), by Stand Clear, Rua Rodrigues Faria, 103 Edifício i, Espaço 1.14 B – LXFACTORY, 1300-501 Lisboa, Portugal, and (hereinafter referred to as "developers"), the user expressly and irrevocably agrees without restriction or reservation on the following general terms of use of the app. If you do not agree on any of those general terms of use of the app, the developers kindly ask you not to purchase or use it.

'myHealthPass', as a communication tool, is designed to be used in the area of health, namely in order to allow communication with professionals in hospitals, clinics and pharmacies. It was developed based on symbols in order to allow easy communication between persons speaking different languages or with a person with speech impairments. Those symbols were designed in order to be easily understood, but they do not constitute normalized signalization and therefore it is totally impossible to make any sort of claim that they will be correctly understood by the user's correspondent, regardless of his profession (physician, pharmacist, nurse and other professionals). This said, any reliance placed on the information contained in this app will be at your own risk. The user is the sole responsible for the outcome of any patient treated using information from this app. The user agrees to not hold the developers' responsible for the interpretation or misinterpretation of real clinical information by using information given by this app. By using this app, the user accepts that he is no way entitled to recover from the developers damages of any kind resulting from that use.

This app is protected namely by copyright law. In particular, any reproductions, adaptations, storage and processing in other media, including storage or processing by electronic means, enjoy copyright protection. Any exploitation in whole or in part thereof shall require the prior written consent of the developers. Any reproduction of information, in particular the use of texts or parts thereof or images, also requires developers' prior written consent, except if they are used for purposes for news or press releases on the application. Images that are reproduced and/or electronically modified for editorial purposes (news and press releases included) must bear the copyright notice "© 2013 Stand Clear Lda. All rights reserved". Any unauthorized use or abuse of developers' rights is expressly prohibited and will be persecuted legally.
